

EMCEE SCRIPT ... hold your event together and make it fly

At last, your integrity, confidence, resourcefulness and availability have caught up with you.

They've asked YOU to be the emcee, MC or Master of Ceremonies.

Quite a responsibility!

You're a combined welcomer, safety officer, nurturer and protector.

You'll generate energy and a happy buzz. You know what's happening backstage, front of house and on stage.

Your emcee role has many parts and you need to be prepared for ALL of them – plus any surprises.

How?

By following an effective script

If you've never been MC before, it can seem like a nightmare.

But take heart, and take advantage of my experience as a veteran organiser and MC of many music/fundraiser events.

Together, we will generate a SCRIPT you'll be proud to deliver.

I'll COACH you, if necessary.

Let's talk about your project
