

How should I choose an editor?

IPEd has an Editors Directory where Professional members can list their services on its website.

Check it out: http://www.iped-editors.org/Find_an_editor.aspx

You can search this Directory for editors with expertise in particular genres and specialist skills.

Image: pixabay

Then you need to contact the editor you are interested in and decide for yourself, after discussion of your manuscript, whether you would be comfortable working with that person.

— From: IPEd, the Institute of Professional Editors